

Pink Sight Words in Context

We love to read and play

By Elizabeth Clarke

I am five. I like to read and I like to sing.

I saw a girl trying to read. I ran to help her.

"Sit down and think." Said the boy.
She read her book and did a good job.

Later, our teacher told us to eat our lunch then fly away to play and jump.

"I wish we could read, play and jump all day!" said the girl. "But I have to go home."

She got up and pretended to fly all the way home. The boy waved goodbye.